VARSAITY.

ST. JOE 41 VS. OWL CLUB 23.

Dec. 7.—The defeat of the Owl Club in the first game of the season shows the added strength to this years Varsity. With four lettered and three valuable new men Coach Stockton can prime up a winning team. Splendid team work accompanied with brilliant shots made the game very interesting. Sindelar at the pivot station registered a dozen baskets.

ST. JOE 43 VS IDAVILLE 13.

Dec. 13. — This game beyond doubt was the best played on our floor in recent years. Idaville last year was a strong contender for the State High School championship and certainly can boast of a well balanced team. The Purple and Red guards played a great defensive game and broke up their opponents pass work completely. McArdle playing at center owing to Sindelar's suffering from a sprained ankle played a stellar game. Derry and McArdle were tie for honors both scoring eight field goals.

ST. JOE 23. VS ST. MARY'S 29.

Dec. 20.—Under perverse conditions and on a strange floor the Varsity, after managing to tie the score in the second half, went down in defeat by a very small margin. Our guards owing to the slippery floor were unable to keep their opponents from scoring. St. Mary's know fully well their chances for victory at St. Joe and have refused to keep their agreement for a return game.

ST. JOE 48—VS—GOODLAND 26.

Jan. 11. -- Goodland managed to strengthen their squad considerably, and the defeat dished out to them was not in accordance with previous years. The strenuous workout with the All Stars the night before weakened our team to no little extent. The teamwork in general, and especially the defensive play, was a shade below the usual high standard. Not until the second half did our forwards strike their old time stride, and then our neighbors were left in the shade. Gilmore, center for Goodland, made several long spectacular shots.

SENIOR LEAGUE.

SENIORS 52 VS II. COMMERCIALS 7.

Jan. 10 — The Senior League was opened by the Seniors and the II. Commercial. The former team being made up of old timers walked away with their younger opponents and made 52 points while the II. Commercial succeeded in making only seven. Although the defeated team put up rather a poor game against the Seniors they will improve with constant practice and will soon be able to give the other teams in the League a hard game.

III. COMMERCIALS 19 VS II. LATIN 17.

Jan 12.—The III. Commercial defeated the II Latin by the score of 19 to 17. The Latin lead in the first half and also in the second half until the last few minutes. The Commercial won by close guarding in the second half. It was a fast and clean game and if all teams play such games the Senior League will be better and more interesting than ever before. Both teams look as if they are going to make a good fight for the high honors at the end of the year.

III. LATINS 42 VS IV. LATINS 14.

Jan. 14.—The III. Latins, champs of 1912, made a good start toward capturing the bunting by winning their first game against the IV. Latins by the score of 42 to 14. The IV. Latins were strong in the first half, but did not put up much fight in the last period and permitted the former champs to run up the score on them.

II. LATINS 19 VS SENIORS 13.

Jan. 17.—The Seniors, a team that everybody thought to be invincible, were humbled by the II. Latins. The former team was over confident and "went up" when their opponents gained a lead. They failed to overtake the younger team and had the short end of the 13 to 19 score at the close of the game. Beauvais put up a scrappy game for the II. Latins at guard and was a big factor in holding the Seniors down. Lill did most of the point gaining for the Seniors.

III. LATINS 39 VS II. COMMERCIALS 10.

Jan 18.—The II. Commercial were no match for the III. Latins in the game to-day and were defeated by a onesided score. The II. Commercial have some good material and with hard practice and a little more fight they could make a much better showing.

Academic League.

MAROONS 19 VS EAGLES 14.

Jan. 17.—The opening game of the Academic League was won by the Maroons from the Eagles. Score 19 to 14. If all games of this league are as good as this one we can expect to see some fast games this season.

TIGERS 2 VS SHAMROCKS 10.

Jan. 18.—The Tigers and Shamrocks game had the lowest score to date of the season. The Shamrocks won 10 to 2. Throughout the game the guarding of both teams was good as was shown by the score of the first half which was 2 and 2.

Junior League.

LAURELS 21—vs— IMPERIALS 15.

Jan. 13. -- The Juniors, no less than the Seniors, are certainly proving to everybody that they have mastered the art of playing basket ball. Owing to nervousness the Imperials were forced to bow to the Laurels and accept the shorter end of the score, but had the Imperials had a few more minutes to play, they probably would have turned the tables on the opposing quintet.

IMPERIALS 17—vs—BLUE BELLS 36.

Jan. 14. — Once more the Imperials had to acknowledge defeat to their opponents who more than doubled the score, which was an easy task. Fitzpatrick played an excellent game passing the ball through the "rings" eight times.

CARDINALS 19—vs—LAURELS 29.

Jan. 16. — Although the game was won by the Laurels by a large margin, nevertheless, the Cardinals made it interesting for their opponents at every stage of the game.

BLUE BELLS 10—vs—CARDINALS 8.

The Junior League was opened by the Blue Bells and Cardinals, the former winning by one field goal. Fitzpatrick, last year's star among the Minums, scored the winning goal just at the close of the game.

OWLS 18—vs—DOVES 4.

Jan. 15. — The Owls, by fast, open work registered another victory for themselves, by humbling the Doves 18 to 4. They got away to a flying start in the first half and soon had the game stowed away.

DOVES 10—vs—LARKS 13.

Expectations were high when the Larks flew in a race with the Doves, defeating the latter only by three points. Gabel and McGahey featured the game.

OWLS 10—vs—WRENS 0.

Although, as a general rule, the Owls cannot see during the day, nevertheless, they convinced their opponents, the Wrens, that they could score ten points, and leave the floor flushed with victorp while the Wrens brought up the rear shouldering ten points less than the Owls.

EDITORIALS.

SEASON OF 1913.

We stand on the brink of a new season! And, as glancing back over past seasons we compare them with our own present outlook, we cannot but feel enthusiastic over the bright prospects of the coming year.

With such a man as Coach Stockton in charge of the Varsity, and the Varsity composed of several old men and some very good new ones we may well predict a successful season for them.

Next take a peep at the strong aggregations in our Senior League. With six evenly matched teams, the race for "rag" promises to be fast and furious. Although some of the teams appear to have a shade the better of the deal, still you just watch those new men for they give promise of great development and will give us all a surprise.

The Academics loom up stronger and faster than ever. They are composed mostly of Juniors of last year, consequently some spectacular playing is to be expected.

And don't overlook the Juniors and Minums. Although many of these players are new students who have, as yet, had but little chance to demonstrate their playing ability, still the manner in which they handle the ball shows that they mean to give us a sample of fast, snappy playing.

Indoor Base-Ball.

The Juniors hail with delight the coming of Indoor Base-Ball as an organized sport in St. Joe. A league has been formed among the Juniors and great interest is shown in the games. A determined effort has been made by the different teams to lead in the inside game, and carry off the ray at the close of the season. We hope that Indoor Base-Ball has come to stay, for it is a clean and manly sport worthy the support of all.

Hemmelgarn who was annoyed very much by the coughing of his neighbor Schulte, said: "that's a very bad cough you have."

"Yes," replied Schulte, "but it's the best I got."

Delightful Campaigners.

Beauvais—"Pretty women campaign in England."

Gallagher—"As to how?"

Beauvais—"Giving kisses for votes."

Gallagher—"Um, I must admit that England is ahead of us in some things."

Deery—"I came near selling my shoes today."

Fettig—"How's that?"

Deery—"Well, I had, them half-soled."

Matchette(to farmer)—"The buttermilk was fine. What are the charges.

Farmer—"O, nothing we always feed it to the pigs."

Prof. — "What was the 'Sherman Act'?"

N. Murphy. — "Marching through Georgia."

Enthusiastic geological student. "Oh, Professor, I saw such a funny old fossil in the museum to-day. I thought at once of you."

REASONS ENOUGH.

Inquisitive student.— "Why do giraffes have such long necks."

Prof.— "Because their heads are so far from their bodies."

Magsam.— "Anything in your stocking Xmas morning?"

Cyr.— "Not until I had dressed."

Prof.— "William can you give a sentence with the word 'income' in it."

Kennedy.— After a moments hesitation answered: "Bud opened the door and in come a cat."

Walker — "Did your watch stop when it hit the floor?"

De Jaco.— "Sure, did you think it would go through?"

A man who was weighing hogs was asked by Irene, "what do you charge for weighing them?"

"Jump on, I'll weigh you for nothing" he answered.
